

Reconnections WA

meet ups are for people with brain injury living in WA to connect with other individuals living with brain injury.

These groups will provide the opportunity to chat, provide support, education and share some of your challenges, your victories, your tips & tricks. Come and learn from other people's stories and hear about different experiences of brain injury and issues that are important to you.

You will be in a supportive space with people who understand.

We look forward to seeing you.
